

Sources of Help for the Bereaved

Grief is a normal human response to a significant loss.

Be patient with yourself and do not compare yourself to anyone else. Grief is very personal and the worst kind of grief is yours.

Grief is unpredictable. You may experience a wide variety of emotions and reactions you have never faced before. This can be a painful and complicated process, sometimes medical advice or counselling can help.

We have a booklet entitled Now What? available to all our client families which may give you a better insight into the grieving process.

Please ask for a complimentary copy from any of our funeral homes.

We are also able to offer professional bereavement support through SAIFCare. Please ask for a leaflet or further details from your funeral arranger or our receptionist.
